

Lolita Pegelo

April 9, 1944 - February 2, 2024

Lolita Louise Pegelo, of Harrison Township, passed away on February 2, 2024 at the age of 79. Lolita is the cherished wife of the late Kenneth; the loving mother of Melissa (Gus) Sponkowski and Shiela (Chris) Graham, the late Kenny Pegelo, and the step-mother of Randy (Linda) Luchtman; the adored grandmother and nana of Isabella, Kenny Jr., Kendra, Riley, Conner, Reed, Sebastian, and Sofia; the dear sister of Michaelleen (the late Tom), Diane (Bill), Cynthia (Dave), Dennis (Heather), Keith, Philip (Sharon), Mark (Geri), the late Tom, and the late Dawn. Lolita is also survived by many nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Lolita loved to keep her mind active. She loved to play bingo, putting together puzzles, and reading books. To say Lolita enjoyed Elvis was an understatement. She was one of Elvis' biggest fans. From listening to him to owning merchandise, Elvis was always on her mind. She was also very close to her "Alicia Dicia" who was like another daughter to her.

“ Omg my dear cousin, there are so many loving and fond memories of our families together. One of which when Al went to Kuwait, the going away party we had at the Sears house. I have a video of you dancing with us and you were rockin it. Your had the greatest laugh that made everyone laugh with you. You always had the sunshine sparkling in you eyes. You will be dearly missed by the Sears family my extended sister. Go rest in Gods arms and give them heck up there. Love you 🥹❤️
