In 1972 I received one of the most charming gifts in my life. Bob and Lora as my dear parents. They welcomed me into their family as a true daughter and we have kept this friendship and love for these 47 years. They gave me true values, they gave me affection and love. They came to Brazil to visit me and they welcomed me to the USA when I visited them. I will always love you, like all of this wonderful family they gave me. Love you all. With all my love, Cecilia “ *Lora was so nice not only for me, but for Cecilia and all of Sue's international sons.

One of the main reasons I planned going there on February was to see her one more time... I've never told anyone but I really felt that I was like her grandson... I'll always remember her smile and patience when she was telling us her histories with Medeiros and McGrath involved.
Now she is resting and spending some time with Bob! She is in a good company for sure!!
I know it's hard but I Hope you Kim, Sue, Brenda, Patrick and Lauren get well soon and keep only good memories about her.
I'll always be grateful for everything your family did for our family!!*

Thank you Marcelo, this was so sweet. She enjoyed face timing with you from the hospital and said how much she loves you
