“ I was doing research for a client on Friday in reference to a subject named Jordan when several Loretta Jordans popped up. It made me reflect back to a different life and time so I went deeper into the search and found that Loretta had died. I can't express to you the sadness I feel learning of the passing of your wife and mother. Loretta and I were friends when we were kids and the knowledge of her stays with me today. Loretta was one of the sweetest girls I have ever met, it's been over 45 years since I saw her and her "realness" I will never forget. To her husband Ralph I hope you realize what a Blessing it was for you to have such a wonderful person as your wife. To Lisa and Lynn, you have been blessed with a wonderful, beautiful mother. It's going to take a long time or maybe never, for you to fill the void created by her death. And kids, let me tell you about your mother; she told me this story. Your grandpa Frank was somewhat strict with your mom and her sisters, it seems that if you were sick or anything else and could not go to church on Sunday, don't plan on doing anything the rest of the day, you better stay in bed the rest of the day so you could recover. Loretta said she didn't mind going to church but felt inferior because of the dress of the folks. She liked it best in the winter when she could wear her long coat and pull the coat tight around her and no one could see how she was dressed just a sweet story I remember. Your mother also liked to go to "IHOP" up off of I-96, "BIG BOYS" and an occasional pizza. When I started thinking about Loretta, I remembered her old phone number KE3-1664 now that was back in the stone age. Ralph, Lisa and Lynn what a wonderful, notable, caring person Loretta was and I think you must know that. I leave you with this thought to keep all your life, It's a line from an old country song "there's holes in the floor of Heaven and mama's watching over you" May God comfort you... He will if you let him. My deepest sorrow.

“ Dear Eikamp family, I am remorseful about your loss and like to extend my deepest sympathy for your loved one Loretta Eikamp. From personal experience I know that the death of a love one causes pain and grief and sometimes it seems unbearable. The Scriptures contain comfort that can assist us during times of distress. The ransom of Jesus and the hope of seeing my loved one again in the resurrection brought me comfort. I would like to share these three scriptures with you to give you comfort John 5:28, 29, Acts 24:15 and Romans 15:4. May the God of comfort give you peace and rest.Mrs. Higgins
