Lori was born to the late Walter and Eleanor Walters in Hamtramck, Michigan. Her family moved to Cleveland, Ohio, where she grew up and graduated from Parma Senior High School. Several years later they moved to Michigan and lived in the Sterling Heights area.

Lori was a successful banker starting out as a teller at National Bank of Detroit and working her way up to a Branch Manager and then to District Manager before she retired. Later in life, she worked part-time at Hallmark, as she loved working with people and customers.

Lori was preceded in death by her beloved husband Tony of 64 years of marriage; her parents Walter and Eleanor Walters; her sister Emily Colonna; her brother Walt Walters, and her brother Arthur Walters. She is survived by sons Damon (Debbie) Noga and Scott (Patty) Noga; daughter Celeste (Jeff) Ludwig; grandchildren Michael, Danielle and Lauren Noga; Nicolas and Evan Noga; Ashley (Billy) Baumann and Amanda (Tim) Gonyeau; and great grandchildren Isabella, Luca, Dylan, and Milo. had for her husband, Tony.
