

Lorice Van Wormer

October 19, 1935 - July 8, 2022

VanWormer, Lorice (Nee Willis)

Age 86, passed away on July 8, 2022. She was born to the late Austin and Alice Pearl Willis in Aiken, South Carolina. While living in Aiken, Lorice met her beloved late Husband, Douglas. Through Douglas' work the couple would start on adventure that took them to several locations in the country before landing in Clawson MI in 1965. This is where the couple would raise their daughters Tammy and Lori. She enjoyed this chapter of her life, meeting regularly with the other ladies of the neighborhood for their ladies "happy hour" and they all became life long friends. Throughout her life she enjoyed bowling, gardening in the summer and playing cards with Doug. She particularly enjoyed the time with family and neighbors around the holidays. The Clawson neighborhood friends would always get together for the 4th of July to have fun and watch fireworks. When Christmas and Easter would roll around she went all out decorating and making sure the family enjoyed themselves.

Lorice was the loving mother of Tammy (Keith) Locke and Lori VanWormer. Proud grandmother of Joshua Abbey, Thomas Locke, Kaitlyn Locke, Jacob Locke, Jessie Zurgable and Derek Zurgable. Dear great grandmother of Logan Locke. Sister of Joan and the late Thomas, Herman, George, Edie, Helen, Louise, Bobby and her twin Dorice.

“ We have such fond memories of Aunt Lorice, Uncle Doug, Tammy and Lori Ann coming up North on vacation. All the boat rides, swimming, campfires, parades, board games, badminton, picnics, Long Lake adventures...the list goes on and on! Aunt Lorice always knew what to do in every situation. Her advice was "gold" and well appreciated because it came from her heart and strong moral compass. She always had a big smile and open arms for children who she made feel welcome in her home. I remember the neighborhood kids always wanting to play at the Van Wormer's house when I visited them in Clawson. We will greatly miss her. She was a cherished family member who will always be remembered.
