“ May God rest the dear soul of Lorna Brock. My memory of this sweet lady is of hearing her heavenly violin playing at St. Lawrence daily Masses on some of my days off from work, and from an occasional chat. I will miss her.

“ A more kind and loving soul ever walked this earth than Aunt Lorna. Our family was blessed to have her in our life. We are so happy that she is in heaven with God and at peace. We will miss her laughter and her smile. Our prayers go to all our cousins and their families. We will always remember the good times we had together!
