“ I always enjoyed seeing my older cousin Marilyn when she visited my mom (her Aunt Eleanor) in Elk Rapids or received us as guests in her home. Fond memories of her include witnessing how she was so carefully raised and loved her daughters Karen, Shelley, and Paula.

I also remembered how she had to put up with my antics goofing off with her daughters when I stayed at her house while attending college. At that time I remember her stumping this wise cracking college kid with questions I hadn't considered on how to improve society instead of just complaining about society's ills. She challenged me to come up with solutions, not just to gripe about stuff. Her challenges made me grow up. Thank you cousin Marilyn!!

In the last six months I have been reunited with Karen, Shelley, and Paula. It was a blessing to also reunite with Marilyn and passing memories to her through her daughters.

Proverbs 31:26-27 describes my cousin Marilyn well in her love for her family and in actively watching out for them:

"She opens her mouth with wisdom, and the teaching of kindness is on her tongue. She looks well to the ways of her household, and does not eat the bread of idleness."

God Bless you Marilyn. You are now with our Savior, Jesus Christ.

“ it is deepest sadness that we learned of our dear sister Lorna "Marilyn" Powers passing. She will be missed and yet always alive in our hearts and memories. As kids I could not have had a better sister to look out for me, set great academic standards in school for me to aspire to do half as well. A talented musician, and a pretty good wrestler as well, she could always make me say "UNCLE" and yet never really hurt me. On rainy, snowy days she would help me with my paper route which happened to be the largest paper route in Detroit, of course after that, hot chocolate and giggles to warm up.

We know all our days are numbered and we give thanks for the nearly 30,660 days we had with "Marilyn" to share, love, grieve, laugh, cry and rejoice over life itself.

Sister-in-law Susana sends her heartfelt sympathies and condolences to all the family. She vividly recalls the visits, the travels and shared experiences with "Marilyn" and like all of us who knew "Marilyn" will miss her.

May all the memories we share with "Marilyn" give us comfort and sustain us.

Your loving brother William "Alan" Selesky and
Your loving sister-in-law "Susana" Comas Selesky
