“ Claudia and her mother loved the holidays and I have great memories of sitting at the kitchen table eating all their home backed holiday cookies and sharing stories. We'll all miss Lorraine.

“ Lorraine was one of my last surviving first cousins. Her father and mine were the only brothers in their family. I remember family get-togethers at the farm on 25 Mile Rd. and how she looked out for her younger cousin and introduced me to the wonders of a working farm. How sad that our family is shrinking so much. My condolences to all of her family.

“ Dear Buchalski Family, Your dear father John, and mother, Lorraine were true pillars in the Utica Community Schools family. My prayers are with you as you mourn the loss of Lorraine at this time. They were both great mentors and friends to me at Bemis Jr. High School. God Bless, Love Joyce Spade
