“ The Carl and Virginia Schulz family send condolences to the Truba family. My parents knew Richard and Lorraine through Masonry and the Shrine. Truba's also installed all of their flooring. Our families are connected at Oakview Cemetery as our plot is just a few steps away from yours (Blaser, Wetzel, Schulz). Our thoughts and prayers are with you all. Barbara Schulz

“ *In Memory of my dear friend, Lorraine, When I would visit you and Richard and Elmer at the store.. JT was just getting around in his stroller and he enjoyed laughing and talking to Elmer and Richard and you would show him the different colors and fabrics that made up the carpets..All the many times we got together in our life time, I will always remember..To your family, keep close to each other the rest of your lives and remember what your Mom and Dad have taught you and all the good times you have had together, Love you “God Bless You all in your time of sorrow. Feel the love of family and friends around you and try to find comfort in knowing that your mom and grandmother has touched the lives of so many people. Like the wind, her Spirit cannot be tracked or traced, but you have her history that will become your future. No one person can lay claim to knowing all of her secrets and knowledge. Instead, through a 89 year impression that she graced upon the world, you will find her qualities in people. It's not a gift that is our to behold; her family and friends, but a gift that has been channeled through the presence of every person she has touched. Some of it is in foreign worlds, across vast oceans, and gone far away from her humble home. But it is true with most things, it is gone and not lost. You will find it now, resonating in the earth, during times of change, happiness and bliss. We are all her today as part of her collective; a real tribute to a wonderful woman! She said she was ready to go on, so remember, she loved you. She loved you all...We will see her again.

“ Dixie, Rick, Cindy and family - Lorraine was such a wonderful lady. She was always there ready to help someone, it didn't matter who it was. She always welcomed you to her home with open arms and plenty of food and beverage, making you feel right at home. I always enjoyed the lively conversations, whether at the store or her home, and her delightful laugh. Hold onto all the good memories you have! She will be missed.
