“ Donn, Your Mom meant so much to our folks, Alice and Doug McKay. They valued her friendship and kindnesses through many years. She was always admired and considered one of their best friends. Our condolences during this time, and we are grateful we knew her.

“ Lou was a dear friend and superb role model for me for over fifty years. Her love and dedication to Bill , Donn and her whole family was her life's focus. She worked tirelessly on her home, garden, yard and outside work. Her cooking was beyond compare and she adored NASCAR! Such a racing fan! No one could forget her smile nor her beauty, both inside and out! The world is a better place for having had Lou here. She had faith , love and charity for all! I will miss her always as will my family!

Aunt Lou was such a role model for a young bride coming into the Moll family. She knew I loved ponies and gave me flowers when they bloomed in her garden every year. Aunt Lou took care of Christi when I gave birth to Lori, I didn't think Christi wanted to come home. She was sure loved by those two. Aunt Lou was a very special person. She will be missed by many❤️❤️
