“ Lou, you raised me like your own son. You left this Earth when I was just a 13 year old boy. I Love you the same way I love my own father, although I am not listed on your obituary, your memory is carried with me and the lessons you taught me will be passed down to my children, your grandchildren. Thank you Lou, I am sorry I was such a foolish young boy.

“ Lou was retired from GM. I had the pleasure of not only being his co-worker but friend for over 30 years. My wife Gina and I are truly saddened by this news. Our hearts go out to the family. My wife has a special nickname for Lou. Sweet Lou..because he had a huge heart filled with lots of love.. He will be truly missed. Syd and Gina Peterson
