“ I knew Lou for over 40 years and have only fond memories of an intelligent, kind, funny and caring man. He often stepped up to help wherever needed and I remember him spending many late nights in my garage helping my husband build sets in the early years and more recently enjoying his (and Vonnie's) company while sharing a meal or watching a play. My sympathies to Vonnie and family. Lou's gentle spirit will be missed.

“ During my years with Stagecrafters, Lou was always "there". There to build something fantastic, there to encourage you with his great smile, there to be of service. For all the people that passed through that theater, I marveled at Lou's ability to remember names and faces. Lou's bright spirit will be missed here but he is surely shining elsewhere. My deepest sympathy to Vonnie and family.
