“ I met your mother/grandmother when she lived in Florida. She was a fun, happy gal, a good cook too! Her sister Josie DiPaolo introduced us when she became a weekly euchre player. We shared many happy times together and I valued her friendship.

Please accept my sincerest condolences on your loss.

Sincerely,
Yvonne Johnston

“ My dear mother....we love you so much! It's so hard to express in words how much we miss you already. You've lived a long life with a lot of trials & tribulations, especially losing our dad at your age of 40 with 4 kids and another on the way. You did a remarkable job!! The past few years you've been ladled with pain from breaking your legs, 3 times! As hard as it is to lose you, you are now at peace with no more pain. Rest In Peace Mother! Love, Pat & Bruce
