“ Hi to all sorry to hear about your mother "Mrs Hall" as we knew her as our neighbor. Rita told me about it. May God Bless and comfort you all in your sorrow at this time. I think of the Royal Oak Parent St days often and you are always part of those thoughts

“ My Gram of Gold: railroad tracks, clothes lines, family dinners, southern cooking, 544-7128, Kmart, BFF Cheryl Crass. Rusty “saying” momma and bluuuu for her cookies. Finding “seeds” and planting them to see what grew—did anyone ever tell her? Detroit St, HUGE snowballs rolled down the park hill, hugged by the most covers you could have on a bed and still not be overheated, parties @ Halloween, Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Years, hand-painted little ornaments, hand-stitched pillows, taking her to Merle Haggard, Leanne Rimes, Statler Brothers. John R apt, weekends at my house, creepy mousy and round hole on the kids, the leaves were always turning and the trees were always budding, holding all 3 kids, playing in the snow, walking the kids down the block, ranch and Italian dressing on her salads, no shrimp. Independent, dancing, whistling, humming, refuge, no questions asked. God Blessed my life with her. To be so strong for my family and pay it forward; To be like her when I grow up
