*Dear Sid
Thank you for being a wonderful friend to mom. You sure could make her laugh. She always said I want to go to Australia but I don't fly or go anywhere by boat on the ocean. I know your hurting like us kids are. Thank you for thinking of us today. Mom read her Bible daily. Her Faith in knowing "Heaven Is For Real" as she did believe. We will be all together again with Christ in Heaven one day. We must cling to Jesus. promises. Only he can bring comfort. Gods Blessing to you Sid. Love, Pam*

“ This woman...

This lady is my boyfriend, Matthew's grandma.

This special angel is my Lydia...my Kitty.

This woman who loved my daughter, Molly & I like we were her own.

I love her so much for everything she helped me with, gave to me, and the love she gave us. I miss you so much, my sweet Kitty. You gave me strength when you didn't even know it. You accepted me when no one else did.

I love you for everything you were, and are, to me. I knew you for a mere 3 years, and felt like you loved Molly & I for a lifetime. You believed in us when we even didn't believe in ourselves.

I miss you so much ❤️ kisses, my sweet Kitty.

“ Dear Pam, I'm so sorry to hear of your great loss....Your mother loved you very much! I was very fortunate to meet you through my mother and your kind words helped me through the loss of my mom last year. My mother and your mother Kitty worked together for years and became dear friends as I remember her work stories and how your mother loved my mom's pistachio cake recipe that she shared over 32 years ago with your mom. These two loving souls are rekindling their friendship in heaven now. Praying for you and your family...the warmth and peace of Gods love - Linda

“ Lost my true bff. I knew the day would come, but "Kitty" was a fighter, so I guess you just felt like she was somehow immortal. I remember so many great times with her, she always had my motel room stocked with Amish rolls, snacks and pops, made you feel famous every visit up north. I loved the little country slang that would come out like "go mash that light switch on" lol I could always call her. She saved my life through some of my darkest moments. No one will ever be like or replace her. I'm glad I got to spend her last birthday with her and her final days. Grandma. I miss and love you and look forward to meeting you again someday, that's my definition of Heaven. Rest now, for the pain is gone. Jesus got one of his best works back, thank you Jesus for sharing her with us so long. Love your grandson, Matthew

“ I met Lydia through her lovely daughter, Pam Karcher, who's Christian love and devotion to her mother glows through Pam's ever present humility of her love for her Savior, Jesus Christ! Claiming: Psalm 23 "...Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me All the days of my life..." and John 3:16-21 "...and God so loved the world He gave His own begotten Son ... and he who believes in Jesus is not condemned..."

*My Dear Mother
Its Easter. You are spending it with dad & our Savior. And your parents & loved ones Christ brought home before you. You always taught us to keep Good Friday & Easter Sunday Holy. We will continue Honoring Jesus Christ. I miss you so much. Christ love is everlasting as my love is for you & dad. Praying you are one of the angels among us. You taught us kids look at the Cross, its the only way to Salvation. Thank you for always allowing us to go to church whenever we wanted. Jesus words sustains me daily. We will be together again. Miss you. Sendings hugs to you & dad. Love you, We will miss the bunny cake you akways made us for every Easter. your daughter Pam*
