“ I was so saddened to hear of Lynn's passing. She is the sweetest, kindest, person I have ever known. She had a heart of gold and always had a smile on her face and a kind word to say. I consider myself very lucky to have known Lynn and to have had the privilege to call her friend, and then Boss. Her battle was a long difficult one and she fought it with courage and grace. My heart is breaking for the wonderful person we have lost, but I know Lynn's heart is finally mended. She is in her Mom and Dad's arms with God's arms around them all. Rest in Peace Lynn, my thoughts and prayers are with you now and always and God Bless you Lynn and your family and friends.

“ Jack, Chris, Doug, and Laurie: I am so incredibly sorry for us all to lose someone as wonderful as Lynn. Her strength in her faith, and support of friends and family kept her going for a very long time. She hung in there so determined to live and fight. Now she can rest, with no more fighting. I have missed her and thought of her so often. She was my friend, my sister, and confidant for many years. She helped me navigate some tough times in my life and for that I will be ever grateful. I know losing her is painful but that will pass. She will be with your parents in heaven, blissfully happy. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. If you can, please give her a kiss from me and tell her I love her. May peace be with you all.

“ Dear Deigel Family & Chris & Jack Hartwig: I remember with great fondness sharing our voices during Christmastime carolling. Lynn was an integral part of our group and I appreciated her gentle humor and fine voice. She will be missed. Our prayers and thoughts go out to her entire extended family. Gaye Lucci

“ Dear Diegel family, I am remorseful about your loss and like to extend my deepest sympathy for your loved one Lynn Diegel. From personal experience I know that the death of a love one causes pain and grief and sometimes it seems unbearable. The Scriptures contain comfort that can assist us during times of distress. The ransom of Jesus and the hope of seeing my loved one again in the resurrection brought me comfort. I would like to share these three scriptures with you to give you comfort John 5:28, 29, Acts 24:15 and Romans 15:4. May the God of comfort give you peace and rest. Mrs. Higgins

“ Dear family of Lynn, I was so saddened to know Lynn's life had come to an end. Our lives intertwined for many years. She was such a special, strong and loving person. One who followed the path God led her to without complaint. Her life was much too short but she gave so much to so many while she was with us. She is at peace now and with her parents. I'm sure she is happy there. I will miss her. Mom Diegel

“ We've known each other since high school, then working at Tri-Parish Credit Union as tellers and into adulthood with Lynn agreeing to be the Matron of Honor at my wedding. Lynn was the kindest, smartest, most wonderful co-worker and friend. I know she battled as hard as she could with the support of her family and credit union family, and she is at peace now with God. “ My heart goes out to all of Lynn's family. She was a beautiful person with a beautiful spirit. As my sister in law and godmother to my oldest daughter, Dana, her loving kindness always shone in everything she did and said. She will be missed by so many people and remembered with great love. May her long struggle be over as she rests in the arms of the angels; she is one of them now as she was one here on earth to us. May God bless her and all of those whose lives she touched so lovingly. Marcia Diegel Cole
