“ Scottie, I'm very sorry about your loss. Losing a Mom is very hard as mine has been gone now for almost 6 yrs. Keep your memories close to your heart. They will keep you going. As you know or may not know you are our 6th kid and we always have you in our thoughts. The best thing you can ever do for your mother is to follow your dreams. Life is about choices, do your best to make the right ones. Go to school as planned and your mother will be right there with you! Hang in there Scottie!! Be there for your Dad he needs you as you need him. Love, The Moore Family

“ Lynn was one of the most open minded people i've ever met. she was never afraid to tell you how she felt or what she thought and i admire that so much. i remember one of the first times she met me and she said she liked me because i wore what i wanted and didnt care what anyone thought. & it's stuck with me. it may not seem like a big deal to most but it's something i'll always remember. she is very loved and missed so much.

“ Lynn, I miss you. You are a wonderful person. I remember when scottie went to look at the new car and we spent 3 hours together. That was a fun day. Its memories like this that people will keep in their hearts. Your son is all grown up and he misses you so much. You've raised an amazing kid. And I know you're proud. I love you Lynn.
