“ We will all miss Mabel very much, but knowing she is not suffering now is such a blessing, when we know she was in much pain those last days. She was a dear Sister in law one I love very much and will never forget the last time she visited with Edward and I we all had the best time and she wanted to come back and spend a week with us she told us she had such a great time visiting us and we look forward to her coming back, but she never did get back down to visit us. So Edward and I will always remember her and the sweet visit we had with her.. May God be with the family during this time. We love all of you. Aunt Verna Lee and Edward
