“ Our young family lived down the street from Al and Maisie on Glenshire Drive in Troy, Michigan. We were newly married and had two small children.

Al caught my attention right away. He was over 70 years old and was doing all his own landscaping. We were amazed. Maisie was so friendly and loved to share her decorating tips. We became quick friends and enjoyed each others company for many years. We have many fond memories and our hearts go out to their families. God Bless. May you rest in Gods arms forever!
