“ I only got to visit with Mal on weekends since he and Jean moved into American House, but that was always something that I looked forward to. Just in that short time, I could tell what a great man he was! My best wishes to his family - you are lucky to have such a great man as an influence in your lives. Mal will be missed greatly.

“ As a former student at Kimball Mr. Armstrong was one of the very few that I have always thought about through the years. I always had great respect for him. The smile that he always seemed to carry with him as he walked down the halls was something that I will always remember. I often though, if I didn't have a father I would love to have him as one. He was a good man. Thank God for memories.
