“ Dear Sue,
It will not be the same without Mal's hug as I go into the sanctuary at church. My prayers are with you and your family.

*Love,

“ I just wanted to express my deepest sympathies for the Morris family. I remember many years of going to "the farm" and spending many weekends with the family. My prayers are with Sue and her family. I will miss Mallory very much. He influenced my life in ways that many of you will never know.

Be strong at this time and may God wrap his arms around you and comfort you all.

“ I just wanted to add my comments to those of my sister Holli and my mother Jo, and extend a special thanks to Muggs (and to Sue) for having been such good friends to my folks, Fritz Whitmore (a lifetime friend and childhood neighbor) and Jo (Utley) Longendyke (classmate and fellow band mate), that whenever all of you would get together whether at our home or yours, we kids would get to play together. That was a special highlight of my summers every year. I remember only good times with Shellie and Mike, Kelly and Paul. So many smiles, so many great times of laughter and fun! All of that could only have come from a father (and mother) of good-hearted, loving souls. From all the stories I'd heard over all the years, Mugg's life was one well-blessed and well-lived. My condolences to you all on his passing, but I'm confident your fine husband, father, grandfather, etc., is smiling down on your entire family right now, wanting to remind you he is now at peace.

God bless the whole Morris family.

“ On behalf of my dad, Fritz Whitmore, Muggs' childhood friend and neighbor, and my family, we are deeply sorry about your loss. Over the years, we have heard many "stories" of the adventures Muggs and my dad had. Sounded like some fun times for sure!

We are praying for your family!

“ What can you say about a man who brought so much fun to all who met him. I've known "Muggs" since 6th grade at Croswell and have shared with him many adventurous activities throughout our Jr. High and High School days. We had a mutual love of band and band trips and his memory of some of the more "interesting" escapades was phenomenal.

He was always checking up on other people and never seemed to worry about himself, because I know he knew when the end of earthly trials were over he'd be totally blessed in Heaven with his Lord and Savior.

Mallory loved his beautiful, peaceful "farm" and he and Sue worked like slaves to make it accommodating to all invited there. They are dear friends and I'm heartbroken for the family and for myself.

Muggs was a friend to all and an enemy of none.
I love you all.

“ Mallory loved to talk about his grandchildren and great grandchildren. I knew him as a friend and fellow co-worker. His love for his family showed in the way he treated others by always willing to help. I'll miss having fellowship with him and Sue.

“ Condolences to the Morris family. Our thoughts and prayers go out to your whole family. Psalms 147:3 says God, "heals the broken hearted, and binds up their wounds." May God bring you comfort and peace.

“ Mal was a great friend and a man I greatly admired. He has always been a model husband and father, and a true man of God. Though I celebrate the truth that he is with Jesus today, my own selfish side wishes he was still with us. I am grateful for the years God let us share together. They are full of cherished memories.
