

Mandy Miller

February 16, 1990 - July 24, 2007

Miller, Amanda C. Age 17. July 24, 2007. Beloved daughter of George "Jerry" and Cindy. Loving sister of Jenny Scott Wisniewski, Michelle Jake Hurley and Darcie. Dearest aunt and godmother of Mason. Mandy loved all animals. She raised a goat named Fernando and had a true companion in her dog, Riley. She was an accomplished and enthusiastic horseback rider and an active member of the Bowers Farm 4-H Club. Mandy's deepest passion was her horse, Mack, who provided her strength and passion and fed her spirit while she battled her disease for the past 3 years. She was so deeply loved. Her spirit, tolerance and courage were admired by those who knew her well.

“ Coach Miller and family, Thank you for raising a beautiful daughter and allowing her to share her gifts and love of animals with the smallest of our Shrine students, the four year old morning preschool class. Our son Petr loved her as well as the goat! Hold your heads high and know that God loves you, also. Our prayers are with you.

“ May our loving God of compassion fill your hearts with his Love as you mourn the loss of your beloved daughter and sister. I only knew Mandy through my association with Wigs4Kids. I was drawn to her beautiful smile in the various photo albums and publications. Her warm spirit radiated through her smile and I hope that will be one of many images that will stay with you during the difficult days ahead. While at Wigs4Kids, I prayed that each of the kids would beat whatever they were facing so that they could enjoy a life without needles, hospital stays, numerous doctor visits, and medications. From reading the beautiful tribute your family has written of her, it sounds like she lived as fully as she could. I am making a donation to Wigs4Kids in her memory so that other youngsters may be helped to smile and feel better about themselves. May love sustain you and God bless you.
