“ *My dear Blancke Friends,
My heartfelt sympathy and prayers for all of you. Marcella was such a wonderful lady, very quiet, always smiling, kind-hearted person. I know she is in heaven and will be forever watching over all of you. Her funeral service was so beautiful, what a wonderful tribute and send-off she received... You are all in my thoughts and prayers. May she rest in God's eternal peace. Love, Margaret Malburg and Family*

“ *Marcella and Bill were very special people in our lives. They were always there at our wedding (56 years ago), at our parents 50th anniversary, at all our children's weddings and many other occasions. Every year there seemed to be a time when the families joined in celebration. Marcella was such a giving and loving person. She always had a wonderful smile with the ability to make everyone feel welcome.
Marcella was blessed with a wonderful husband, family and supportive friends. We certainly join you in celebrating her life.

“ This was a true lady in every sense of the word!! She loved life and virtually everybody in it. She wanted to please everyone as much as she could. Don't think I ever knew anyone who worked as hard as Marci never complained.

“ We have spent many a Sunday or holiday with Marcie in the past 20 years. She was one of the nicest women we ever had the pleasure to know. She treated us as family, not just an acquaintance. We were very lucky to have her in our lives. We will miss her so much.
