“ Grammy, I've spent the last few days thinking of you and the time I have spent with you. You have given me hours upon hours of memories I will cherish forever. You have always been an inspiration to me I can only pray that I am half the mother and grandmother you were.I am proud to say you are my Grammy. I'm so thankful that you are finally resting although my heart hurts that I will never hear you tell me "I remember" You'll never know what those 2 words meant to me. Your heart always had room for another grandchild/great and great great grandchild, step grandchildren. We had 5 generations so very rare. There was always room for neighbors, friends and extended family. God truly gave us a special gift the day you were born. I love you. Deb
