“ My deepest sympathy to the entire Dinello family. Aunt Margie was one of the sweetest women I've know. Although I havent seen her much in the last 10 years, I will always have many childhood memories of her. Many visits to Michigan & her visits with the family to Pennsylvania. Cousin Dave would always say he knew he was coming to PA cause he got new tenner shoes. Childhood memories are the most important in ones life because we are all impressionable when we are kids. I will cherish my memories of Aunt Margie always. "The best & most beautiful things in the world, cannot be seen, not touched but are felt in the heart" Love niece Carol
