“ Dear Margaret, John and family, We are so sad to learn of the passing of your parents Bert and Margie, especially under the incredible circumstances of losing them both within a few daysâ?? span. This must be a very difficult time for you and your family, and we hope it is some consolation that you all are in our thoughts and prayers as we share in your loss. It was our honor to get to know Bert and Margie and to spend time with them on their visits to Nebraska. We admired their wonderful energy, enthusiasm and familial spirit, and consider them role models of great parents. They always seemed to take loving pride and joy in their family, and we were fortunate that they treated us as if we were part of it. With their â??big hearts,â? we suspect that this welcoming and loving spirit is how they treated everyone. We were so impressed and moved by Margieâ??s indefatigable spirit and enthusiasm; she always had a smile for us whenever we got together. We were moved many times by her courage and dignity as she coped with her physical afflictions in her later years. These issues never seemed to diminish her spirit or enthusiasm as she delighted in spending time with her family. We will always remember Bert and Margie fondly and will miss them very much. Sincerely, Rick and Madeleine MacDonald

“ To the Family: Deepest condolences on the loss of Margaret and Bert. How sad to lose them bothâ??and yet, how wonderful that they went out so close together. I was the flower girl at their wedding, a memory I cherish. I remember how your grandmother made my dress, along with all the bridesmaidsâ??. There was/is something enormously special about the Mulhern family, and your family as well. May you be consoled by being part of that.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. As the days and weeks pass, and you return to life's routine, may you be comforted by our ...God and Father of our Lord... the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort those in any sort of tribulation through the comfort with which we ourselves are being comforted by God". 2 Cor. 1: 3, 4. Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Please also find comfort in the following: John 11:11 where Jesus said, "...Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from the sleep." Our Heavenly Father holds out the hope of the resurrection and the ability to see our loved ones again.

“ Please accept my sympathy. I had the pleasure of knowing Mrs. Labadie a number of years ago when I had her children in school. She was a wonderful mother who took great joy in her family. She was one of the people I always enjoyed seeing....positive, smiling and proud of her children.
