“ Margaret was truly a pleasure to know. She was a firecracker with a brilliant personality. I will truly miss going to lunch with her and taking her to homegoods to shop. I am truly blessed to have known her.

“ It was always such a pleasure to deliver mail to Mrs. Lowe! I enjoyed a brief chat with her many times, and her dry humor always made me laugh. We shared stories about her family and my daughters. She had met them when, as very young children, they helped with the food drive, and after that she always asked about them. My husband joins me in sending you our sympathy.

Peg was a long-time neighbor of my parents (and me) who shared our joys. She and my mother, Margaret Rowe, were next-door neighbors who loved to shop for collectibles and antiques; had picnics, garage sales, and good old chats. Peg and Larry even hosted my parents' 25th anniversary celebration!

She and I had a long phone conversation just a month or so ago. I will miss those enjoyable moments.

What a lovely lady! I met Margaret a few years ago when I took a position as receptionist at the Waltonwood Royal Oak Assisted Living Community. It is the most difficult part of the job; saying goodbye to the people you get to know and care about. She was always sweet and spunky!

There is a quote by Dr. Seuss that I love and it seems appropriate: "Don't cry because it is over; smile because it happened. I am so thankful to have known Margaret. She will be missed! God Bless Margaret and my deepest sympathy to her entire family.
