“ Dear Michael,

As you know every one us who knew Margot will miss her. She was always so thoughtful, generous and a great friend to all of us who met her through our exercise sessions. She would bring us cookies and she never forgot to bring some goodies that she picked up from traveling.

Barb and I especially enjoyed our lunches together. I got a particular kick over Margot's enthusiasm for a dish of Gnocchi from Da Francesco's. She not only loved them but she could pronounce the word correctly. Whenever we think of exercise sessions, Da Francesco's or Outback, we will always remember how much fun Margot would bring to each and every occasion.

Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

Sincerely,

Angelo and Barb

“ Since I retired a few years ago, I've had the privilege of getting to know the real Margo. She was fun loving, full of life, and liked to keep in touch with her friends. I have enjoyed many a glass of wine with her, played some crazy games with her and just plain visited with her. She was a joy to know and always had a smile. She loved to cause or get into mischief. She became a wonderful friend and gatherings will not be the same without her. I miss you already Margo. I know you will have good times in heaven. Love you.

“ Margo and Mike were our dear friends from the day we arrived back in Michigan after my retirement. She was holding dinner for us, even though we had not yet met. She took me under her wing when my husband died; they both made sure I was ok every day for the last six years. My life was made better because of Margo. Her cousin lone said is best: “the best legacy we can give Margo is to be more like Margo.” A bright light has been extinguished here, but that light is shining brightly in Heaven. Rest In Peace, my beloved friend. I love you. We’ll all take care of your Michael.
