“ My best memories of my grandma will be our talks about her life on the porch of the cottage. Like when she met grandpa or when she ignored him for 2 weeks because he had some inappropriate words when she suggested getting a boat! We were lucky Gigi's her memory was so sharp!

“ Whenever we all get together again, we should all eat on blue plates, just because. Maybe we could have a tetris tournament? Let's all chip in on a 91 Grey Explorer and leave it in Eagle Harbor just so Tim can drive it up a stump. This all sounds great.

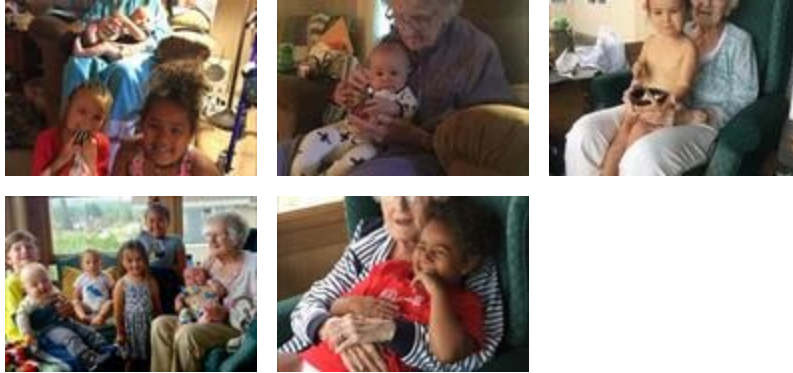

I'm thinking of you all. Wish I could be closer and give big hugs. And joke and hear stories...and cry with you all.

A wonderful grandma. Like Doug said, as selfless as anyone.

Great Grandma Gigi (then in her 90s!) traveled all the way to Duluth to meet preemie Franklin, named after her husband. Frank. His doctors granted special permission for her to hold him in the NICU. ❤️ Last night at bedtime Franklin said to me, "Mommy, it's sad that we don't get to see Gigi anymore..." I agreed and told him that we are so lucky that she gave us her love. And we are so lucky that we always get to keep her love with us. ❤️❤️❤️

Great retort Jamie! We haven't told the boys yet... But thanks for the positive ideas when we do.
