“ To each of you, especially all of the family who have had such strong affiliation with the Shrine Schools and parish, our sympathy and prayers. We know you are experiencing great loss, even as you celebrate a life well lived in faith. May you enjoy God's peace and may your dear mother, grandmother and friend continue to bless you. On behalf of the parish staff, God bless you. Sister Noreen

“ To all the Seymour "kids", Jim feels particularly close to all of you cousins, and he really wanted to be a part of your mom's memorial. So sorry we can't be there on the 23rd. Jim's and my fondness for Aunt Cis will always be part of our indelible memories....she was certainly lovable. We send our sympathy and love.

“ Dear Kathy and Meg, I was sadden to read of the death of your Mom. I have fond memories when we attended the Shrine football games together. I often think of her when I pass her house on Wiltshire. My deepest sympathy and prayers to your entire family.
Fondly, Elaine Greenhow
