“ Well, where does the time go and only wish it can stand still from the time we found the snowballs you and Lynda took LOL! From my first Neil Diamond Concert at University of Detroit to babysitting you guys. It certainly brings fond memories. Or maybe when the pool colapsed or Doug backing up because the girls were teasing him and falling into the pool. We certainly had it all as kids and fun times. I am so sorry to hear of Marie's passing. I am sure she is arguing up in heaven because she loved Neil Diamond and how much Charlene hates him!. God bless you all, loves always, Sue

“ This is cousin Sue again. I realized I messed up the names on my previous e-mail. It was not meant to be disrespectful. I'm just very upset about Marie, and Joe's mother is very sick. So I don't think right at times. Uncle Jim: you survived losing your wife, through your faith. You will make it through this hard time, too. I love all you guys and am sorry for not keeping in touch. Your middle niece, Sue

“ Hi. This is cousin Sue. I am so very sorry for you losing Marie. She will always be on my mind and in my heart. Even though us cousins, aunts & uncles didn't see each other much; we were like one big happy family when we DID see one another! It was like the years that passed didn't matter! Who brought us together, with her wonderful laugh and smile: MARIE!!! THAT'S WHO!!! Love you all.

“ My heart is breaking for all of Marie's loved ones. I hold you all up in my prayers. Marie and I had many heart to heart talks over the years...the consistent theme was how much she loved her family and God. Despite her brokenness, I think she was able to reveal her true heart. I will miss her terribly, and will always cherish the sweet memories of earlier days when we would laugh hysterically together. She will forever be held close in my heart.

“ I wish to offer my deepest condolences to the Schatz family on the loss of your loved one. When we lose someone we love in death, the pain, grief, and feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable. But remember that the Almighty God sees your tears, and feels your pain; and he will continue to bless you and strengthen you through this very difficult time because he loves you.
