Marilyn and I were Shrine church members, friends and long time pinochle partners after our husband's died. We enjoyed it so. Going to nurseries for flowers and music concerts were also enjoyable times spent together. Marilyn loved her family and enjoyed her time with them and friends. Now, she'll be with Roger and Roy, my husband to play pinochle with all the people in our club with have left us to be in heaven. They will all be laughing and having fun. It is comforting to know that she is no longer struggling and is at peace now.
