“ Dear Brother Ron, Joe and girls: Our love and sympathy at the transfer of your wife and mother to the eternal Mansions. When here our pathways part, we suffer bitter pain, but no where does it compare to the Joy of the resurrection. We are Easter people. So we will meet her in the morning over there. We have fond and good memories of our families together in by gone years in Clio. God made her a very classy Lady!
With the love of Jesus,
Erv & Carolyn Kostizen

PS. We tried to post this several days ago. Good thing we checked.
This is our 2nd attempt.

“ My prayers are with Pastor Guettler and the entire family at this time. I got to know Marilyn when I taught at St. Paul Lutheran School. She was very gracious and welcoming to those she met. My dad was a pastor and spent time with Pastor and Marilyn at the Michigan District Church Extension gatherings. I know what a pastor's wife does behind the scenes at church. Marilyn loved her Lord and passed that feeling on to others through her service to Him. I was saddened to hear of her passing but rejoice she is safe in the arms of Jesus in all of heaven's glory! May we all be comforted by His peace and love. The best is yet to come!
To God Be The Glory!
