

Marilyn Haldeman

April 20, 1935 - June 26, 2026

Marilyn Jean Haldeman, 91 was born on April 20, 1935, and passed away on Friday, June 26, 2026 in Clinton Township, Michigan.

Marilyn was born and raised in the Washington Township/Romeo area. She was a bright young girl, with a keenness for spelling. On September 26, 1953, she was married to the love of her life, Fred. They raised three children who started families of their own. Marilyn will be remembered for her devotion to God, her quick and blunt matter-of-fact attitude, her fantastic baking skills; especially her delicious, cookies and homemade pies, and her love for playing the piano.

Marilyn was preceded in death by her parents, Raymond Pierson and Ruth (Jim) McCutcheon; her husband, Frederick Haldeman; their infant son, Michael; one sister, Margaret Harned; one brother, Robert Pierson; and loved and missed in-laws, friends, and extended family.

Marilyn is survived by her daughters, Wendy (the late Alan) Mansell of St. Petersburg, FL; and Laurie (Jeff) Black of Drummond island, MI; her son Steven (Penny) Haldeman of Shelby Township, MI; six grandchildren; Winter (Nick), Harvey, Michael (Laura) Bishop, Mathew (Kelly) Bishop, Jesse Haldeman, Tanner Haldeman, and Mitchell Black; three great grandchildren, Alexandra, Taylor, and "AJ" Bishop; one sister, Ruth Ann Robb of Ortonville, MI; and many nieces and nephews.

Family and friends will gather to celebrate Marilyn's life with a visitation and service at the Wm. Sullivan & Son Funeral Home 8459 Hall Road (3 Blks E. of Van Dyke) Utica on Sunday, June 28, 2026 from 2-8pm and a funeral service will be held at the funeral home on Monday, June 29, 2026 at 11am.

Marilyn will be laid to rest with her husband Frederick at Christian Memorial Gardens Cemetery, Rochester Hills, Michigan.
