“ We are so sorry to hear of the loss of your beloved wife and mother. Marilyn fought a valiant fight against an incredibly ugly illness and you provided such wonderful support to her through this battle. Marilyn always had a sense of humor and would try to find the positive in every situation. We knew her as a woman who loved her grandchildren and took great pride in trying to meet the individual needs of each of them. Her love of music and singing certainly touched Jacob. Even as a young child, after a visit with her he would know all the words to a new song she taught him. She will be truly missed.

Now that she rests in peace, may you find peace in God's loving arms, and rest assured that you will meet again some day!

“ Sincere Condolences on your devastating loss.

I knew Marilyn from the Metropolitan Singers of Southfield. She was a delight to know - always friendly, helpful, and full of spirit. She voluntarily worked hard for the chorus.

I greatly enjoyed singing solos with her, and have missed her beautiful soprano voice from the time that she could no longer come to the chorus.

I have no advice on how to grieve, but I'm sure you know that she will be greatly missed by me and the rest of the chorus.
