“ Dear family, I was saddened to read of the loss of your dear mother Marilyn. Please accept my deepest sympathy and take comfort in God's promise in Revelation 21:4 "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." And lastly "Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart; And those who are crushed in spirit he saves." Psalms 34:18. I pray this helps your family as it has mine during loss.

“ While it has been many years since I've seen Marilyn, what I remember most is her smile. And sometimes the smile with "the look", generally directed toward an ill-behaving husband or son. She seemed to single-handedly plan, prepare, accommodate, and entertain so she could have those that she loved so much together and close to her for every holiday, birthday, or other occasion. She has touched many lives, and I wish her family warm thoughts and happy memories.

“ No one was sweeter or more gracious than Aunt Marilyn. But I do remember one McKinnon wedding shower that my sisters and I threw where we decorated the tables with jelly beans spilling out of tilted champagne glasses. Aunt Marilyn went around and picked up all the candy and set the glasses upright.. .We all laughed about that.

“ I only wish I knew you. My Dad spoke of you many times and told me what a wonderful person you were. I can't imagine you being the youngest and ONLY daughter growing up with SEVEN brothers. And only one bathroom! How about the boys coming to your house to pick you up for a date? Oh my! Well, you are the last of the Cunningham Clan to join your family in Heaven. I'm sure you are getting lots of hugs in Heaven now. God bless you Aunt Marilyn and my prayers are with the family you left behind. Love, Chip Cunningham Florida

“ She was the most kind, caring person I have ever met. Always asking how I was and how my parents and family were. I will always remember the way she would thank me ten times, even weeks later, for something I may have done that was so simple. Or always asking if we needed something to drink or something more to eat. : She was so sweet and will be very missed. I can see her in heaven at a welcoming party in her honor that will probably go on for days celebrating with all of her family and loved ones that have gone before her. I will always remember her smiling face. I Love you Marilyn. My heart goes out to her husband Karner and each of her children who are all amazing people. Love, Terri Hamilton
