

Marion L. Baker

August 29, 1932 - December 18, 2025

Marion Lenore Baker (nee Cameron), a resident of Royal Oak, passed away on Thursday, December 18, 2025, at the age of 93. A daughter of Robert and Lydia Cameron, she was born on August 29, 1932, in Hazel Park, Michigan.

Marion was known for her warm sense of humor and kind heart. She was supportive, loving, and easy to talk to, always offering thoughtful advice without judgment. Strong in her faith, Marion lived her life with quiet grace and compassion. She was a devoted wife, a loving mother, and a cherished grandmother who meant so much to her family.

Marion was the beloved wife of the late Ronald. She was the loving mother of Kathleen Lenore Mandrup-Poulsen and James Elliot Baker, and the cherished grandmother of Nathaniel and Christian Mandrup-Poulsen. She was the dear sister of Joan Kolmetz and the late Roberta Mills.

Please share a memory at www.SullivanFuneralDirectors.com

Tribute Wall

BM

“ Dear Cathy I am sorry to hear about Aunt Marion passing I will miss her immensely. I love you all . I am glad all her suffering is over. I use to call her and we talked about someday we shall see each other I do believe we will my 🙏 she is with my mom grandma Lydia And Uncle Ron & Denise. Love cousin Brett& Dina Mills

Brett Mills - December 22, 2025 at 02:20 PM

BM

She was so easy to talk & many beautiful memories of Christmases spent together and when we were up north you Neil's and uncle Ron & Aunt Marion will always stay in my heart❤️ Merry Christmas's Cathy

Brett Mills - December 22, 2025 at 02:29 PM