“ I have many memories of my great aunt. She was a kind and loving woman who had a great sense of humor. From growing up until even now she always remembered when I was a little girl all the silly things I would do. Aunt Margie would always have a hug waiting for me and kind words. She was a great woman and may she rest in peace. I will miss her! Luv ya Auntie Marge! Love Shelley Belly!

“ I have many fond memories of my Aunt Margie/Godmother but the one that really stands out in my mind is the time I took her & my mother to see the Rocketts @ the Fox for the 1st time...she was tickled pick with the show, & the hussel & bussel of downtown Detroit brought back old memories for her. Afterwards I drove down Jefferson to show her all the snow covered Mansions decorated & lit up with Christmas lights...& that I remember made her smile. I remember her telling me that was the best time she had had in a long time.
