“ Many of us are deeply saddened by the unexpected and tragic loss of Mark Brooks. Such a beautiful smile, such a gentle soul. A dedicated, hard-working guy who loved his family and friends, a truly kind human being. My deepest sympathies to all who knew and loved him. Mark, may you rest in eternal peace.

Your friend,
Theresa Hatfield

“ Mark was a great friend for many years . Through our crazy 20's and into our 30"s when we settled down and had our children. Mark never once refused to help me with my car problems and they were many , many problems with all my cars. I will be forever in his debt for taking my first English Setter " Hogan " and giving him a home as I went thru my divorce. Though we had drifted apart in recent years , I will never forget that smile. My world grows a bit darker without the light of Marks soul , Rest in Peace good friend .

With Love , Nic Amicone
