“ Linda,Michael and Cathy I was extremely saddend at the news of Marks passing. My family has been praying for him for awhile. It really doesn't matter how long it has been I know we were still friends. Mark was my first best friend. We hung out all the time riding bikes or swimming in our pool.Mark was a trend setter. If he got a yoyo they bacame popular. Same thing with skateboards. We both had solid wood skateboards and we thought we were good if we could make it over the cracks down the driveway.Mark will always be a part of me and all my good memmories.We will continue to pray to JESUS for your families. Love and prayers Jimmy,Michele and Julie Bellingham

“ Linda, We are sorry for your loss. Mark will be truly missed for his love and friendship. He often expressed how thankful he was for your and Michael's love and support. You should take great comfort in being his soulmate and helping provide the strength for him to fight on. Your support of him was inspirational and certainly contributed to his positive outlook throughout his illness. We have many great memories over the years. Whether it was riding our bikes to K-mart, hanging out on Edgemont, tipping a few at bowling, or standing up in each others wedding, Mark was always a true friend and fun to be around. As the years went by we did not connect as often as we would have liked, but when we did it was special and felt like old times. His friendship will be forever cherished. We can all take comfort that after a long and courageous battle, Mark will be at peace. Love, Linda, Jim & Lauren
