“ It is with a heavy heart that I say good-by my great friend. I will always recall the countless family gatherings, holiday celebrations, back yard parties, hockey games, etc. that we all enjoyed together. I certainly hope that you are in the comfort you seek. Your humor will be remembered by all. May you forever rest in peace.

One that stands out and still hard to believe, when Mark rode his bike from Bloomfield to Bay City Michigan about 90 miles on I 75 to see Kirk play in a state championship Baseball Game! He did get a ride home a few days later! When with us he was always courteous and respectful!we will miss him!!
