“ Me and Mark--no, my Dad--would play golf a lot. It was one of his many passions, and I'm thankful he shared it with me. Once, I'm not quite sure of the date, we were on our second par 3 of the course and it was his turn to swing second after me. (He would always let me go first.) Regrettably, I was tying my shoe for less than a moment when I heard an inhuman scream come from my Dad. It took almost two minutes for him to stop crying in happiness to tell me what had happened. He got his first hole-in-one. The course actually gave him a trophy and you can still find the log of it online somewhere if you look hard enough. I'm really proud to have shared many great memories and to have been raised by my Dad. I'll carry on the lessons he taught me for the rest of my life.

Rest in heaven; Rest in peace.

“ I am so sorry to hear of Mark's passing. I remember our families getting together when we were kids and having lots of fun. It's been a long time since I had the pleasure of seeing Mark and that is my loss. My deepest sympathy to the rest of the family. I hope we can see each other in the near future and share memories and laugh about the good times.

Love,
Cathy Ellico

“ Dear Rick and Carrie, we cannot imagine your greif on losing your son. Our hearts are heavy for you...no parent should have to bury their child! Our prayers are with you at this sad time in your life. I know your sadness will be replaced with the many happy memories you shared with Mark, and we pray that your faith will make that transition soon! Sending our love, Jim and Lolly
