“ Mark, I remember when we would come over to your house and spend the night. You took me into the music room and I sat down at the piano and you sat next to me. You showed me how to play this one song and I was so happy because i learned something on a piano. i remember waking up in the morning and you would set up the fake phone and poached eggs when i woke up. i would look up at you and you were drinking out of the orange juice carton and asking if i wanted any. Every fall you would take me to a cider mill and we would throw donuts and bread at the birds. I remember waking up in the morning feeling like something wasn't right, my mom told me that we lost you. Everyday I think about you, i keep my birthday card you gave me safe in the closet. Especially this time of year i think about you. the Christmas music reminds me of when you and Gayle would dance to it and sing and Deuce would chase me around the couch. I miss the feeling of having you guys around. I miss you and Gayle with all my heart. There is never a day i don't think about you. You will always be like a father to me, no one will ever take you place. I love you and miss you! -Lacie

“ When we were young men, boys really, Denton, Kenton, Greg, Steve, Ralph, Herb, Mark and I would wander the neighborhood. As long as Mark, one of the true "Gentle Giants" was with us, we knew we were safe from harm. Now, firmly in Gods arms, Mark is the one safe from harm. Thank you Mark.

“ Dear Cousin Mark and Family, We were shocked at such tragic news, such a big loss, Cousin Mark was so young. Our deepest sympathies to all of you. Though I didn't know him real well, I do remember he was a gentle giant and he had a big sense of humor and his willingness to listen. When all of us Sproull's were young, I really loved the families getting together for the holidays and summer cookouts. We can be rest assured that Cousin Mark was called up with the angels to be with God. Someday we will meet again and play like we did when we were young. You will be missed! Love and Prayers, Rose & Dave Bruneau

“ Thank you Mark, for being a part of my work life here at the Metamora Branch Library. Your kind, gentle and sharp-witted charisma is a delight that I will miss. I recall the crafty ways you got me to do your computer work. Until, I learned to quietly stand back, as you remembered that web site address you had visited so many times before. God's blessing to you and your grieving family.

“ Our family gives you our condolences for this irreplaceable loss. Our prayers for the family will be focused on. I was really young when Mark was most impressionable on me, but the memories are as if they were yesterday. But that's how Mark was. When I was a child I would always get really excited when I knew that my time was going to be spent with Mark. My memories are too many to mention. But that's the impression that Mark left on me. This is a great loss for everyone but at the same time this is a reality check for myself. Its at these times that you wish you could take back, make up for lost time, get reacquainted and make a difference. I've lost one person in my family that was a significant loss but I didn't have that relationship as a child like I did with Mark. That was my uncle Rick. So, this hits home for me even with all of the time in between that was lost. I wish that I could have that time back to leave that same impression with Uncle Mark as he left with me. In fact I would like to fulfill that task with the rest of the Tamagne family so that another loss won't be so distant and that my family could and would take joy in meeting and growing to know the rest of theirs. “ I would like to offer my family's condolences to Gayle and the rest of the family. Mark you are a person that anyone would have loved to know, and I am lucky enough to have been able to know the real you and am able to call you a great friend. You were always there when help was needed and didn't want anything in return. My favorite memory has to be when we would sit in the truck and just jam out to the music on the radio, smoking a cigarette and drinking a cold one. You are loved my friend and you will be deeply missed. Rest in peace and as you would often say, see ya.
