“ Ron....I'm so sorry for all things that came about. I can only hope you understand. My sister was an incredible woman and you had the privilege of spending so much of your life with her. Marlene will always be an example for me. Her lessons will always be cherished. She will be missed more than imagined, but I'll always have her memories within a thought's reach. Please take care and may the rest of your life be better because of Marlene being such of big part of it.

“ Dear Ron, Our thoughts and prayers are with you during this very difficult time. I can't help but think that Marlene's Mom, John, Nick, Your Dad and Mom and other's are hugging her in heaven right now. There are no words that can console you or your family at this point in time, but, know that we are thinking about you and praying for your comfort and your ability to reflect on all the good that Marlene did for you and those that she spent time with while here on Earth. “ My dearest Marlene ~ Rest in peace. Your memory will live on in the hearts of all those who loved you, especially me. You provided me with many things growing up. You taught me, through your actions, about strength, forgiveness, humor, love and dedication. I remember how proud you were of me when I got my teaching degree. Your words to me will never be forgotten. I know you are worried about Cindy, your only sister, who, by the way, loved you with all her heart and will miss you dearly. But I know she will be fine?she had you to learn from. She is survivor, just like you. I might not be the person of caliber that you were, but I hope she will lean on me whenever she needs someone. I will miss your contagious laughter at the reunions, Mar. Please give big hugs to Aunt Betty for me. Love you both! xoxo

“ To my beautiful Aunt, you will be missed. I will forever hold you in my heart. I will always think of you when I am feeling weak, you were always strong and witty and I can't think of anyone I admire more. I was blessed to have you in my life. I will take care of my mom, maybe not like you did, but I'm sure gonna try. Rest in peace, love you always...

“ You fought the battles that you didn’t deserve and still became this incredibly beautiful woman with a heart bigger than any sky over any mountain. Your ability to care for others, to accept faults, and to forgive are lessons I want my children to take with them.....and then to teach their children. Marlene, I promise to keep your spirit and strength alive. You will now be with Mom.....and I can’t think of a better person for you to be with. I sure the two of you will have countless stories to share. My sister was my hero and I loved her dearly. Nobody can ever match her.....so don’t even try!
