

Marshall "Doc" Duvall

March 1, 2020

Duvall, Marshall "Doc" passed away March 1, 2020 surrounded by his loving family. Doc was born on March 13, 1927 in Charleston, Missouri to his late parents Elven and Alma Duvall. They all moved to the Utica area in 1929. Doc and Leona met at Utica High School and married May 12, 1951 at Trinity Lutheran Church in Utica, Michigan. Marshall is the beloved father of Mark E. (Melanie) Duvall and Corinne (Eric) Peltier. Proud grandfather of Martene (Chris) Elwood and Maris Duvall. Great Grandfather of Cole Marshall Elwood, Claire Evelyn Elwood and Cameron Mae Elwood. He is also survived by many other loving family members. Doc owned and operated his business Generated Gear and Machine, Detroit (later moving to Warren). While at Utica High School Doc played football and afterwards was selected to play football at the semi-pro level. Doc loved going up north to their cottage located on Mullet Lake, where he fished, played golf and enjoyed many other outdoor activities with his family. He was a WWII Veteran, serving as a MP for the U.S. Army. He was drafted at the age of 18 disrupting his graduating with his classmates. He then later graduated after his discharge in 1947. Doc was very involved at Trinity Lutheran Church, he was a board president of the Trinity Lutheran School, an Elder at Church and belonged to the Couples Club. Doc and Leona loved to travel and were members of the Nomads. Family will receive friends Friday March 6 from 3-9 p.m. at the Wm. Sullivan and Son Funeral Home 8459 Hall Road (3 Blks E. of Van Dyke), Utica. Funeral Service Saturday, March 7, 11:30 a.m. at the funeral home. Burial will follow at Utica

Cemetery, Utica, Michigan. Memorials appreciated to Trinity Lutheran Church for specified needs at Church.
