“ You have our sympathy and thoughts and prayers, Ken. Also we celebrate with you and give thanks for having such good and loving parents to bring you into the world, to mold you into being who you are, and to stay around for many wonderful years to continue to be good people, good parents, and good friends. I remember them well, despite thae fact that I saw them infrequently. Wish I'd known both--my first cousin your Dad and my first cousin by marriage, your Mom, better.

“ I want to send all of you my sincere condolences in the loss of your loved one Marth. The Bible holds out a real hope for our loved ones that we lose in death. God is stronger than our enemy death and he promises to bring it to nothing. 1Corinthians 15:26 "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." God promises that our loved ones have the hope of living again. Isaiah 26:19b "For your dew is as the dew of mallows, and the earth itself will let even those impotent in death drop in birth." What a comforting hope we have to see our loved ones again. Sincerely, India
