“ The happiest memories I have of Uncle Marty are too many to consolidate into a short eulogy. Uncle Marty loved to dance, sing, crack bad jokes, make everyone laugh, spend time with family and friends, be outdoors, share advice. He had a knack for making everyone feel welcome. We all will miss you Uncle Marty. We love you, but I do know this...you are here with us, in our hearts and thoughts, forever. I believe he would agree with this beautiful poem I found, enjoy. Do not stand at my grave and weep, I am not there, I do not sleep. I am a thousand winds that blow, I am the diamond glints on snow, I am the sunlight on ripened grain I am the gentle autumn rain. When you awaken in the morning hush, I am in the swift uplifting rush Of quiet birds in circling flight, I am the stars that shine at night. Do not stand at my grave and cry. I am not there. I did not die.
