“ I am so sorry for your loss. As the days and weeks pass, and you return to life's routine, may you be comforted by our ...God and Father of our Lord... the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort those in any sort of tribulation through the comfort with which we ourselves are being comforted by God". 2 Cor. 1: 3, 4. Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Please also find comfort in the following: John 11:11 where Jesus said, "...Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from the sleep." Our Heavenly Father holds out the hope of the resurrection and the ability to see our loved ones again.

“ Poopsie and Rudy's kitchen is where I met my husband Marshall! I remember eating plates piled high with salty panfish at their large kitchen table. She was either cooking or canning.....Our deepest sympathy to the Jackson family.

“ She will certainly be missed but never forgotten! Will miss having talks on our up north porch & sitting with her around the Jackson campfire with the whole clan. I will always remember our last hugs up north before we closed for the winter. Sadly the circle of life is something we all have to endure. Sending all of you our Deepest Sympathy, Prayers & hugs. Rest in Peace Marvis.
