Mary Ann Bosley

Age 93

May 6, 1924 - October 29, 2017

Loved and Remembered

Beloved wife of the late Earl Bosley Sr. Loving mother of Earl Jr. (Linda), Mark (Susan), Scott (Lauren), Bill (Mary Lynn), Shawn (John), Stacey and Bridgette (Michael). She delighted in her grandchildren Keith (d. 2005), Jeremy, Aaron (Vanessa) and children Paula, Abel and Matthew; Emily (Thomas), Christopher, Paige (Humberto) and daughter Maya; Kathleen, Michael and Emma.

She is survived by her sister Barbara and was preceded in death by her sister Julia and brothers Bill, Bob and Chuck.

Mary Ann was born in Detroit to Anthony and Elizabeth Wilkins. A lifelong resident of Berkley, she loved to shop, swing dance and was a lifelong fan of both the Detroit Tigers and Detroit Lions, rarely missing a game on TV. She also loved her trips to Florida and going on cruises; but, she mostly loved spending as much time as possible with her family and friends.

Mary Ann will be remembered most for her genuine caring of others.

“ As a kid growing up, I didn't have the best of circumstances. Cue Mrs. Mary Ann Bosley and her ever stocked kitchen. Her HBO before anyone else had HBO. Her ON TV. Remember ON TV??? Yea, I DO!!! Mrs. Bosley had it! So many nights spent overnight in her basement. On her floral couch. Lord, that couch was so comfortable we all fought to sleep on it.

My very very very best friend, Bridgette Bosley Sanlon and I would spend days and days and dayyyyyys carrying in groceries on a late Friday afternoon for Mrs. Bosley and making chip dip and listening to her scream during the Lions games on Sunday's.

She was the sweetest, the best, the most fashionable mom there was. She could shop till she dropped. I can close my eyes and be in her kitchen now. Some of my best teen years were spent in her kitchen. The little TV is on, the Lions are playing. She's making dinner and enjoying a cocktail. Mr. Bosley is either sitting with us reading the newspaper or he's in the living room yelling at us to stop eating all of his food. lol It was the best house on the block in Berkley.

Sleep well, Mrs. Bosley. You will remain forever cherished in my heart and in my memories. Thank you for opening you home to me in my time of need.

All my love,
Lori Schoessler
