“ Dear MA as I fondly called her and when I first met her, I was just a kid and she was truly MA at work.... that was over 40 years ago! She was one tough cookie but as Amy also referenced...one of the last Princesses! I recently saw her after Thanksgiving while she was recuperating following hip surgery and she promptly stood up from her chair and was ready to leave with me...even then, she was still so strong willed. I'm glad that she was able to be home for Christmas, with her family and animals! Rest in Peace my Friend & God Bless Amy, Stuart and your families!

“ I met Mary Ann when I was temping at Time Engineering and she was very intimidating to me. I knew she was someone who demanded respect and I wasn't going to do anything to upset her. As I got to know her and we became friends I realized she was a hardworking woman with a big heart and so much fun to be around! It was a pleasure to have worked and been a friend of Mary Ann's. RIP 🙏

“ I met Mary Ann through MHWC 6 yrs ago. We became fast friends through the club. Mary Ann was so warm and friendly to me as a newer member. She was a great resource and mentor to me. I was so happy to honor her, and others of our club, at the 40 year original member anniversary luncheon.
I will miss you Mary Ann. But I will remember you fondly and warmly -always.

I first met Maryanne at a family picnic in the early 1950's, when she was newly married to my cousin Jack Yemec and I was a young teenager. At the time, I so appreciated the warmth and attention that both she and Jack imparted to me. Although I rarely saw her again, i never forgot her kindness. When my 98 year old step-mother passed away a few years ago in Cleveland, Maryanne was one of the 15 people at the brief memorial ceremony. I was fortunate to have known this fine lady.
